

Inventor To Be Speaker on Two Programs Here

The mechanical engineer-inventor-designer credited with more technical innovations than any man since Thomas Edison will be the guest of the Rotary Club Monday night at Rotary Ann night and of West Texas State College next Tuesday morning.

He is William Bushnell Stout of Detroit Michigan.

"When they call him 'U. S. industry's most whimsical and unpredictable inventor,' nobody argues; nor when they add that he turns out new mechanical devices the way most men make doodles," comment the authors of "Current Biography" in the opening paragraph of several pages devoted to his career.

A friend of Dr. Ples Harper, head of the foreign language department, Stout was on his way to California a few days ago and promised Dr. Harper that he would make the talks on his way back to his engineering laboratories in Michigan.

It is said of this amazing man who rates four inches in "Who's Who"—and a substantial fortune—from his creative genius, that virtually every transport plane or bomber flying today is using some of his developments. In addition to his mechanical ability, he is gifted with a fine sense of salesmanship; he organized America's first successful all-passenger airline service.

Although many of his inventions have furthered progress in aviation (at one time he was known as "the man who sold the airplane to Henry Ford"), Stout's entire energy has not been devoted to that field—he has designed: a brick-conveyer which saved one firm $10,000 a year, a streamlined motorbus two tons lighter than previous models, a "railplane," an improved theater seat and innumerable mechanical toys.

While working his way through the University of Minnesota, he wrote articles on his mechanical toys, and later he became aviation and technical editor of the "Chicago Tribune."

One of his most recent projects, according to American Magazine of February, 1944, is a flying auto, to cost around $3,000. Model for his design, says the article, has been the streamlined effect found in insects.

"Stout has the true thatch of genius, a wild mop of hair which he pushes around when he gets excited," concludes "Current Biographies." "He has been described as the most amiable of men, looking like 'a cross between Groucho Marx and Fritz Kreisler,' carrying about him a tang of the country store and a large aura of leisure—perhaps made up of the time his speed engines have saved."

Mrs. Glen Truax, Mrs. Herschel Coffee, accompanying sang two American examples of new ideas of expression in music.

Mrs. Harper talked of South America trends, giving first hand information of how music is taught in the public schools, and how European influences are coloring the culture of Brazil, Argentina and Peru. She then gave demonstrations of South American music, at the keyboard, playing some unpublished work of one Peruvian composer.

Mrs. Harper led the group in singing South of the Border folk songs. An attractive plate was served by Mrs. Dowlen and Mrs. Knighton.

Fine Arts Group Hears Discussion By Local Artist

The Fine Arts Group met Nov. 3, at 7:15 p. m., in the Mary E. Hudspeth room of the Museum for their special project before joining the A. A. U. W. Groups Twenty-six members and guests heard an interesting paper on "The Four R's of My Hobby," by Miss Marie Fronabarger.

The group sponsored an exhibit of the water colors and oil paintings, consisting of landscapes and flowers, of Miss Fronabarger. One of the most delightful pictures was, "The Star of Bethlehem." The guests expressed much interest in two watercolors of wild flowers and one of a bright red pepper plant. Two landscapes which attracted much attention were, "The Red Barn," sketched on the Harrell ranch; and "The Little Church," painted from a scene on the Hondo River.

Miss Fronabarger has caught the natural vivid color of her subjects in her watercolors which gives them a quality of freshness almost to the point of reality.

The group appreciated the simplicity and charm in Miss Fronabarger's presentation and explanation of her hobby.

A. A. U. W. Plans Christmas Dinner To Be Held Dec. 8

Miss Ruth Lowes, president, called the meeting to order after the study groups had assembled. Dr. Hattie M. Anderson gave some interesting data in her report relating to the scholarships of foreign students. Since the high cost of living in the United States makes their acceptance of scholarships almost prohibitive, many foreign students are going to Russia.

Plans were completed for the annual Christmas dinner program to be held in the Blue Room of the College Cafeteria, Monday evening, Dec. 8, at 7 o'clock.

Canyon Eagles and the Tulia Hornets were the lucky winners in the coin flipping contest held this week to determine which two of the three teams tied for first place in District 2 football would meet to play for the championship. The game between Canyon and Tulia will be played Friday afternoon at 2:30 on the Hornet Field at Tulia. Winner of this game will meet the undefeated team after the Perryton-Phillips play-off, also to be held Friday, and the Bi-District championship will be determined by the winning teams.

Drouth Is Broken As Rain Falls Over the Panhandle, Bringing a Total of .96 Inch Moisture Here

The long summer and fall drouth was broken when rain and snow started to fall Thursday night. A total of .96 of an inch of moisture fell up to Monday night.

While the weatherman states that the moisture may be over for the present, cloudy, damp weather continues, which makes a prospect good for additional rain or snow.

Canyon received .52 of an inch Thursday night; .16 of an inch Friday morning; .20 of an inch Sunday night; and .08 of an inch during Monday.

Farmers state that there is enough moisture to sprout seed wheat and to bring up the volunteer crop. Additional moisture must be had if the wheat continues to grow, according to wheat growers who have examined their crop. The weather has been entirely favorable all week.

Politics Will Predominate on Relief Measure

President Truman opened the special session of Congress Monday, calling for immediate relief funds for Europe and for powers to invoke the spread of inflation in this nation.

Senator Robert A. Taft of Ohio, Republican leader in Congress and candidate for president, took to the air Monday night advocating that the relief bill be about half the amount advocated by the President, and opposing the restoration of the war time powers which President Truman sought from Congress.

The President had stated that rationing of essential items might be needed to curb inflation. This was denied by Taft, as he pointed out that the President has abolished rationing last year with the statement that it was no longer necessary.

From all appearances the whole matter of relief for Europe and curbing inflation will be a political matter in Congress.

Tulia Pastor Is Speaker at Lions Club Meeting

Visiting speaker for the Canyon Lions Club was the Rev. Joel Aldrich, popular young pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Tulia. Developing the theme suggested by the slang inquiry, "What's Cooking?", the speaker outlined several manifestations of the world's great unrest.

In government there is a clash of selfish party interests placed above the general economic welfare. Nations do not trust other nations, which imperils the security of the United Nations. A calm peaceful attitude cannot grow out of a seething cauldron of unrest.

In connection with the meeting, the club voted to donate $200 to the European Relief train, and an additional amount was raised by popular subscription, which brought the total contribution up to $650.

Two Amarillo visitors for the day included J. C. Jackson, with Lion H. E. Shahan and Cliff Milner, with Lion Elmer Wooten.

Antifreeze on Market May Be Danger to Cars

A letter from the National Better Business Bureau of New York is being circulated among service stations warning against the use of improper anti-freeze solutions which are being offered on the market. The Bureau warns that car owners are running the risk of having their motors ruined when these solutions are used.

The warning stated: "Production of anti-freezes of the chloride type—chiefly calcium chloride and magnesium chloride—were barred during the war to protect the nation's automobile. With wartime restrictions lifted, it has been noted that more than one chloride product is being offered, with the usual claim that they contain an inhibitor which counteracts the chloride tendency toward corrosion of engine parts."

The warning goes on to say that car owners who buy unknown products will find their motors ruined in a short period of time.

Mrs. Coss greatly enjoyed visiting with old friends here during her short stay.

Editorials

The boys of today are no worse than the boys of yesterday. But they have more chances to get into cussedness. A lot of them are accepting the invitation. The youth problem became more acute following the laxity of war, when the morals of the nation broke down, and people became ingrossed in the business of killing. We are not blaming youth for the conditions which they did not create. The blame lies with society as a whole. The nation had no business turning youth loose in times of stress and strain as we did during the war. We say that every person must give his or her full time to winning the war. We like to term these "holy wars" to make the world safe for Democracy. But while we were fighting on foreign soil to save the world, we were allowing our youth to run mad. No, we are not going to quit fighting foreign oppressors and dictators. To give up the fight would eventually mean enslavement of every American. Present conditions are merely a signpost of warning along the highway of life: We have a responsibility of building a sane and safe Democracy at home as well as protecting that Democracy away from home. There is a lot we can do about the present situation, when local communities decide that criminal instincts among wild youth must be curbed. To merely smile and shrug one's shoulders in these times is not enough. Maybe we are falling down on the job here in Canyon, being plagued with meatless days and saving of grain so that we are overlooking the really vital problems of the community.

Those who charge that Americans have sold out to Stalin are very likely mistaken. It is too serious a charge to be made without ample evidence. The charge is being made that even President Roosevelt was sold on Stalin to the extent that he threw discretion to the winds. The News is of the opinion that while mistakes were made during the war in not throwing safeguards around our aid to Russia, that no American official or citizen deliberately fell under the Russian spell to such an extent as to sell the interests of this nation. We should have realized, based upon the experience of World War I, that we would be taken to a cleaning by our allies. England, France and other good friends of World War I repudiated their debts, and in doing have holding the bag. Russia is having likewise is carrying out her bluff so that no one knows what she is up to. Naturally we should have demanded that American officers see behind the iron curtain during the fighting, but who would have suspected such treatment as we have been receiving? That we should be taken to a cleaning so far as war debts are concerned is an old, old story, and resulted by lack of business judgment on our part, rather than any sense of unloyalty on the part of any American.

We really intended to go to Amarillo the other day to hear Dr. Frank Norris. He is a powerful speaker, and puts over his ideas. But the disturbance which he created at the Baptist State Convention should convince anyone that he is speaking his own mind, and not that of world leaders, when he talks. Norris has probably been more places in Europe and seen more than any other man from Texas. He has interviewed the Pope and other personages in Europe. But the things that he tells suits Norris, and might not be in line with the facts that others have seen. In a great jumble heap, like Europe, there are so many vital parts to the jigsaw that few persons can really discern the facts and the meaning of conditions that exist.

President Pat Neff has been urged to continue as head of Baylor University, in spite of his age. Some men grow old at 25 and many others are young at 80. Neff has not grown old on his job, and in his ability to handle business affairs. There are probably greater educators than Pat Neff, but never a man with a bigger heart or more determination to do the right thing than Mr. Neff. His public and private life has never been challenged.

Publisher E. I. Hill of the Lynn County News, Tahoka, was here Friday, accompanied by Mrs. Hill. Frank Hill, son of the publisher, is associated in the publication of the News at Tahoka. Mr. Hill has been out looking for news print, and he had met with little or no success. The time was when the weekly publishers could sit by and watch the big daily publishers scouring over the country looking for paper. Mr. Hill is a brother of President J. A. Hill. He was a lawyer, and a district attorney at Sweetwater before he decided that the country newspaper field was more attractive. We hope that the Hills get more paper, but like all the rest of us they are on a strict quota from the mills, and that quota is not enough to satisfy their demands. Maybe E. I. may wish he had stayed with Blackstone—but we doubt it.

We see that the big football teams are looking forward to the coming depression and are making their schedules to fit. In other words, football is big business. Good teams bring big money; poor teams produce little revenue. The smart boys who direct the big teams look at these angles when they make schedules as well as when they hire coaches and go after players. No use going ahead blindly and refusing to admit that a depression is coming; only the foolish have that attitude. The wise will be ready if and when a depression or recession hits, and they will be just that much better off if such economic conditions fail to materialize.

Republicans are looking toward Governor Earl Warren as the most likely presidential candidate in 1948. Why? He was elected by the Democrats of California, who had confidence in him. Warren is opposed by organized labor, in spite of the fact that he holds a card in the musician's union. He is opposed by union leaders because he thinks they have gone too far, and he is not afraid to speak his sentiments. From now until next June you are going to hear a lot about GOP leadership, and what type of man must be put up to defeat the ever growing popularity of President Truman.

American people are confused. And they have a right to be. We hear one group say that Europe needs no help, and that whatever help goes to Europe will find its way to Russia. On the other hand we read statements from people who say that they saw great suffering among the common people of Europe. Take your choice, but we are of the opinion that nothing less than the latter statement could be true. The resources of Europe have been destroyed by war; and inflation has placed the cost of material items beyond the reach of the common man. Why should not hunger result? Since we saved Europe in war, we can and will help Europe find her way back to peace.

Amarillo's third radio station has hit the air, and the fourth one will be in operation soon. The air is so full of station outlets that a jumble of static is the result. We were told the other day by a man from Fort Worth that when the big daily papers refused to sell their stations upon demand of the Federation Communications Commissions that these brass hats replied: "All right, we shall grant permission to every application and choke you out." That's a vicious method of trying to get even with those who have been serving the public well; and adding confusion to an otherwise serene world.

Some army officers in Washington are charged with making a deal whereby they "cleaned up" on government bonds during the war. That is terrible. But what about the other waste that went on during the war; and the other graft that was allowed to continue during the war? We are naturally shocked when army officers, those who have devoted their lives to organized and legitimate killing, should go astray and make money from war, but they are no more guilty than those who promoted war for the profit they could make out of war.

If you do not know what Communism is, just look at the wonderful response given by America to the Friendship Train, and you may reach a conclusion as to the comparison between Communism and Democracy. Under Communism you would have nothing to give; and would be shot for giving even if you felt the urge to help the less fortunate.

Nothing succeeds like success. Labor union men usually are very leery about doling out big salaries, especially when the money comes out of their own pockets. But the successful labor leader can get all the dough he wants if he has been a great success. And how those big boys do fight to hold their jobs.

Shucks, we are not so old after all! Harold Ickes, about seventy-seven years old, regrets that he has lived to see the day when fashions cut off the view of women's legs. Harold may be many years our senior, but he is not losing his eyesight, according to self-confession.

We read solemn warnings that the South is about to revolt, politically against the rule of Northern Democrats. Not unless the religious and prohibition questions get mixed in the campaign, as in the case of Al Smith. The South will stand for Truman in 1948. And the North is thinking of no one but the second place man. So why talk about this political revolt.

The salesman of a well known paper house called his manager the other day to ask if he was still manager of the firm. Assured that he was, the salesman asked why in heck he did not manage to get some paper to fill the orders the salesman was sending in. And the salesman was not fired.

"Take a look at that cab, all one piece. Not a rivet or bolt. There's 22% greater visibility—and even more with those new rear-corner windows!"

"You ought to get a look at that new frame. It's REALLY built!"

"That's the new cab that 'breathes'! It 'inhales' fresh air—exhales used air—draws in fresh air that's heated in cold weather, and forces out used air."

Well, the Duke and Duchess should not feel bad about not being invited to the wedding in London today. Neither were we.

What we enjoy in the many current memoirs are the early chapters, relating the hero's early struggles, before success took him over.

Gov. Lane whom we opposed in the Democratic primary because of his endorsement of the New Deal, seems to be undergoing a remarkable transformation. He is still New Dealish enough in spending public funds, which is apparently what the majority of the voters want, but he has the courage to levy the taxes to pay the freight.—James C. YEAH? SEZ WHO...

DAYTON MORRIS AND CHARLES BARNARD
... WT's short and long of it

Contrasts Prove Friendly

When this reporter decided to take college journalism, he hardly expected to be sent on the assignment of getting an interview with David and Goliath. Perhaps it was hardly so bad as all that, but nearly—he had to interview the David and Goliath of West Texas State.

The David? Oh, that's Dayton Morris, 5' 1/2" junior from Canyon The Goliath? (Shudder) That's Charlie Barnard, the 6' 7" basketball center from White Deer, who, incidentally, is a sophomore.

Upon receiving the assignment, the reporter was in question as to which interview to seek first. On one hand, he could interview the short one first and build up a front to use when interviewing the giant.

Dire Prospect

Yet, should the giant choose to smash the 5'7" frame of the reporter, Dayton's interview would be doomed—never to be printed for public consumption.

So, being faithful to the journalism profession, the reporter trudged somewhat nervously over toward Buffalo Courts to face the giant. After being informed that Charlie lives in Room 3, we meandered slowly toward the room and knocked meekly, only to be confronted by a short but huskily built athlete who informed us that Charlie lived in Room 7.

Even more slowly (for the put-up front had just about fizzled), he wandered to No. 7 again to be met by a short athlete.

"Oh, Charlie lives in Room 6," he said.

Wondering when this would ever stop, the reporter stalked more briskly than ever to the room and knocked. Shortly the door opened, and the reporter stared straight forward into a pair of knee caps.

Then he craned his neck straight upward and gazed into a face that was easily recognized as that of Charlie Barnard.

Through the friendly conversation that ensued, the reporter learned that Charlie has been interested in, and participated in athletics ever since the seventh grade. Thus, it was not surprising to discover that he was planning to finish his college work here with a major in Physical Education.

His ambition is to be a football and basketball coach. When asked if such remarks as "Hi, Shorty!" or "How's the weather up there?" grieved him, he smiled and said no, it never had. After leaving Charlie's room, the reporter was so warmed with the friendly reception that he was looking forward to having a chat with WT's David.

Finding him scanning over an enormous book in the library, the reporter sat down on the opposite side of the table and began shooting questions.

Again, the reception was a friendly one as well as informative. Majoring in general business, Dayton said he plans to go into business for himself upon graduation from West Texas. He said he was particularly interested in owning and managing a bowling alley since he bowls a little and enjoys the game.

He proved that his interest in public speaking was genuine when he won first place in the 1940 district meeting of Future Farmers of America. He won third place in the regional meeting of the same year. Smart remarks about his height used to bother him, but not anymore, he said.

The reporter was certainly relieved to find his interviewees so cooperative and friendly. But what else could be expected on the campus of WT? The shortest and tallest men being so seems to be a very good criteria.

Russia must learn what Hitler learned—that the world is not going to permit one nation to veto peace on earth.—James F. Byrnes, former Secretary of State, in "Speaking Frankly."

A MAN OF THE WORLD

Yes, and we mean in an important sense, for the eyes of the World are upon him.

He is the American farmer.

He, alone, among the farmers of the major nations, is able to feed his own countrymen and hungry millions in other lands. Last year he sent 20 million tons of food abroad while maintaining our own diet level—already the best in the world.

This high production efficiency—achieved by the persistent application of new tools and scientific discoveries—must be maintained in months to come. For food is still fighting for peace.

And so is steel.

Steel companies, which already have set new peacetime production records, are spending more than one billion dollars on improvements and expansion to meet the needs of reconstruction abroad and our expanding economy at home.

Through steel and farm production lies a great source of American strength. And only the strong can hope to keep the peace.

FROM this corner it looks like sadness personified . . . a couple of broken hearted pooches, strained to the point of melancholy as little Willie and Kathleen leave them behind and go on their way to Sunday school. With a mind and understanding next to that of a human being these kind hearted little dogs seem to know well that their third and fourth legs render them unwelcome at Sunday school. Here they impatiently await the return of their little masters. The parents of little Willie and Kathleen didn't even go with them. Like many parents of today they sent them alone to Sunday school not even worrying about their safety or return.

IT is becoming more apparent every day that the phrase "Juvenile Delinquency," is being over worked, misused and misapplied. This Delinquent business has a very definite beginning. More often it begins with the parents. They are the ones who fail miserably in the performance of duty. Your children need your presence, your companionship . . . they need you to TAKE them to Sunday school and church--NOT SEND THEM. The very least you can do is to care as much for your youngsters as their little dogs do. The pooches would gladly go if they Could. Why not decide now to swell the attendance of your church Sunday by taking your entire family.

Two ministers were walking along a country road. One of them took a cigar out of his pocket, lit it, and began to smoke. Whereupon the other remarked, "Brother, I see you smoke. I am amazed at you. Do you know that it is a vile habit? Why, even a pig won't smoke."

They walked on in silence for a few minutes and then the smoker said, "Brother, I've been thinking about what you said just now about a pig not smoking, and I infer that you mean to suggest some subtle resemblance between me and the pig. But, my dear brother, inasmuch as you do not smoke, it appears to me that there is greater resemblance between you and the pig than between me and the pig."

It is found that starlings are frightened by a two-faced imitation owl. If this is the same as the double-domed comentator, so are we.

My Grandmother, aged 84, views the new hemlines with considerable satisfaction. On grandma, they look good.—Jim Lucas, Scripps-Howard columnist.

First Baptist Church Is Scene for Lill-Bogue Double-Ring Ceremony

MR. AND MRS. HARRY JOHN BOGUE

In an impressive candlelight ceremony, Florence Sue Lill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Lill, became the bride of Harry John Bogue, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Bogue of Goodnight, on Saturday evening, Nov. 8. Rev. Roy L. Johnson, pastor, read the double-ring service in the First Baptist Church. An arch of white chrysanthemums, gladioli and ferns formed the setting for the exchange of vows.

Miss June Wimberly played "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life" while the guests assembled, and "To a Wild Rose" while Mrs. Bill McWhirter and Mrs. Harold Beard lighted the tapers. The traditional wedding marches were used for the processional and recessional.

Entering on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage, the bride was attired in an ivory satin gown, designed with a fitted bodice, long sleeves, sweetheart neckline and a full skirt terminating in a court train. Her finger-tip length veil fell from a crown of seed pearls and she carried a bouquet of white gardenias and orchids.

Mrs. Wayne Cole, who attended the bride as matron-of-honor, wore an orchid net dress and carried a matching bouquet of chrysanthemums. Misses Lila and Ruth Lill, sisters of the bride and bridesmaids, were gowned in pink and yellow net, respectively, and carried matching bouquets of chrysanthemums.

Frank Allen Lill, brother of the bride, was ring-bearer and carried a flower girl. Jim Carter was best man and John F. Lill, Jr., brother of the bride, and Dan Thornberry served as ushers.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Lill chose a black dinner dress trimmed in gold and complimented by a corsage of pink roses.

Following the ceremony, the bridal party was honored at a reception in the church parlor. White roses decorated the lace-covered serving table. Mrs. Lawrence Sankey served the tiered wedding cake and Miss Margaret Lill, cousin of the bride, presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. H. L. Welsh of Panhandle was seated at the bride's book.

After a short wedding trip, the couple is at home at 3904 East Seventeenth, Amarillo. For traveling, the bride wore a green suit with black accessories.

Mrs. Bogue was graduated from Groom High School, attended Amarillo Business College and served in the Marine Corps for two and one-half years. She is employed by Phillips Petroleum Co., Amarillo.

Mr. Bogue was graduated from Goodnight High School and served four and one-half years in the Army. He is employed by the Cameron Co., of Amarillo.

Lee Una Sullivan Becomes Bride of James G. McConnell in Fort Worth

Broadway Baptist Church in Fort Worth was the scene Saturday evening, Nov. 8, for the marriage of Lee Una Sullivan, daughter of Mrs. Ben F. Sullivan and the late Mr. Sullivan, to James Gordon McConnell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roger S. McConnell of Pampa.

Dr. H. Guy Moore, pastor, read the impressive single-ring service.

Miss Ben Dell Sullivan attended her sister as maid-of-honor and Mrs. William L. Brewster of Houston was her sister's matron or honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Ruth Stapleton of Odessa, Miss Rhita Jean Sullivan of Oklahoma City and Mrs. L. A. Smith. Miss Patsy McDonald of Canyon was junior bridesmaid and Miss Latane Worsham and Miss Emma Brown lighted the candles.

John Edwin McConnell of Mexico City was his brother's best man. Ushers were B. E. Rushing of Ordway, Colo., Glen Roger McConnell of Pampa, brother of the bridegroom, Milton Berg of Stillwater, Okla., Vincent Kersey of Austin and Russell McConnell of Pampa.

The altar, backed by palms and branched candelabra, was flanked by pedestal baskets of white chrysanthemums. Pews on the bridal aisle were marked with white satin ribbon.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Paul Joyce, organist, played a recital of nuptial selections, including "Indian Love Call," "I Love You Truly," "O Promise Me" and "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life." E. A. Scarbrough sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer." The traditional wedding marches were used for the processional and recessional.

Given in marriage by her brother-in-law, William L. Brewster, the bride was attractive in a gown of ivory slipper satin, designed with a sweetheart neckline, basque bodice, long sleeves and full skirt terminating in a court train. Her long veil was of illusion framed in shadow lace from her mother's wedding dress and draped from a headpiece of seed pearl orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of tube roses and gardenias centered with purple orchids.

The maid- and matron-of-honor wore autumn green satin dresses, fashioned on princess lines with bustle backs and short trains. The bridesmaids wore identical gowns of gold satin and the candle-lighters had yellow satin ballet length dresses. All of the attendants wore halos to match their gowns and carried arm bouquets of yellow chrysanthemums with yellow lemon leaves and tied with gold and green satin ribbon. The candle-lighters carried tapers tied with white chrysanthemums.

Following the ceremony, the bridal party was honored at a reception in the home of the bride's mother. Arrangements of gold and white chrysanthemums decorated the rooms and the table was draped with a Madeira cloth strewn with flowers and lighted by tapers.

Assisting in the house party were Mrs. B. C. Shulkey, Mrs. Grace Burroughs, Mrs. Arvy B. Martin, Mrs. Gertrude Brown, Mrs. Dave Whiteside, Mrs. R. L. Lary and Miss Midge Harrison, all of Fort Worth; Mrs. B. E. Rushing of Ordway, Colo.; Mrs. Vincent Kersey of Austin; Mrs. Russell McConnell of Pampa, and Mrs. Bryan McDonald of Canyon.

For the wedding trip to Sun Valley, Idaho, the bride chose a brown charmerne gabardine suit, with matching accessories and an orchid corsage. After Nov. 22, the couple is to be at home in Ordway, Colo.

Mrs. McConnell attended Baylor University, Waco, and the University of Texas, Austin. She taught at West Texas State College, Canyon, Pampa High School and Amarillo College.

Mr. McConnell attended New Mexico Military Institute, Roswell, and Oklahoma A&M College, Stillwater. He served 49 months in the Army.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. Bryan McDonald, Patty and Billie Joe of Canyon.

ONE RAIN

DOES NOT MAKE A WHEAT CROP

But that one rain received this week is a start in the right direction toward a good crop in 1948.

The next best step is to be prepared to take care of that 1948 wheat crop by being ready to handle the crop with adequate INTERNATIONAL Farm Equipment.

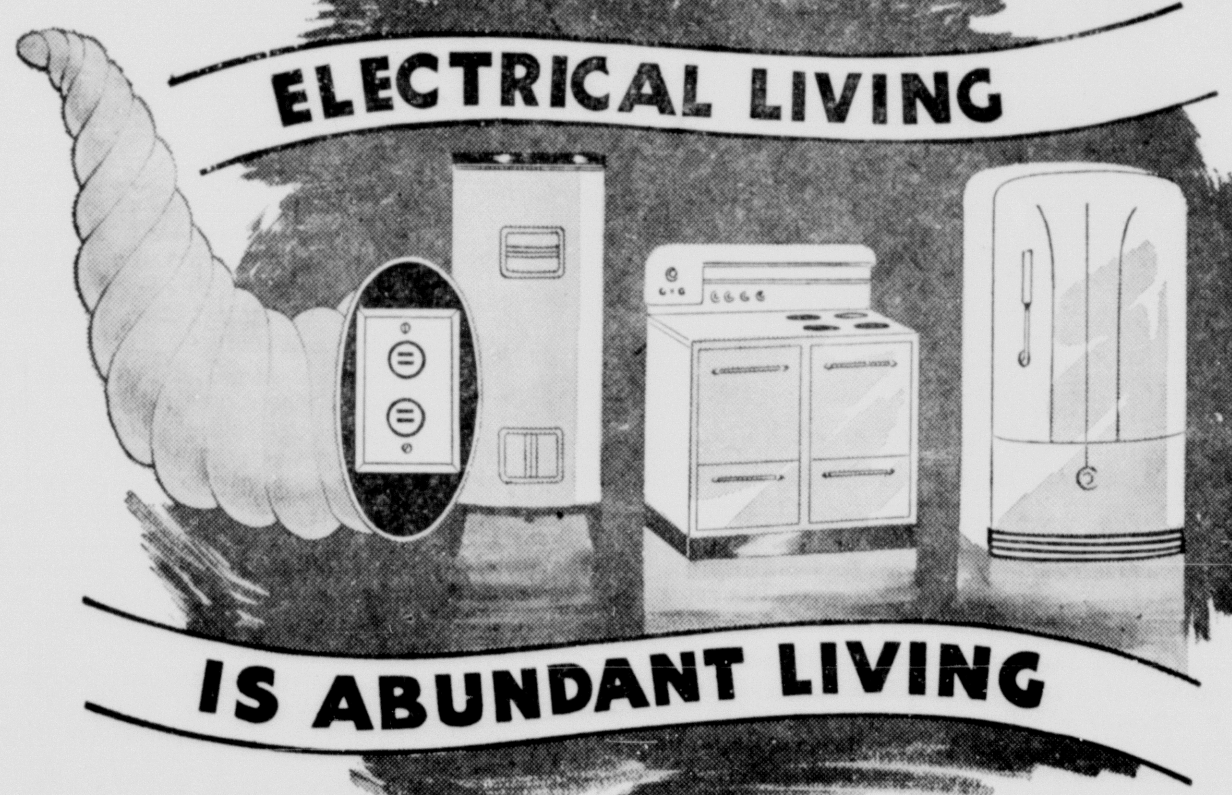

The outlook for new machinery is not good, as we have told you many times this year.

The next best thing is to get all of your farm equipment up in good condition so that the old machinery will be ready to do full work during 1948.

You are urged to have your farm equipment thoroughly overhauled in our shop, by men who know their job. We have the time now. In 1948 we may not have the time.

Eating Raw Fruit Is Good For the Children's Teeth

HOUSTON: An apple a day—plus a little celery and raw carrots—will keep the dentist away, says a University of Texas Dental School doc.

"One way to prevent tooth decay in children is for them to chew raw carrots, celery, and apples at the end of every meal. Although it is no sure prevention, it will help lessen decay," Dr. S. S. Arnim said.

As good as celery, carrots and apples chewed immediately after a meal, he said, is a good scouring with a tooth brush.

"Anything," Dr. Arnim added, "to get the food out of the mouth and into the stomach, where it belongs." "I could say now what I could not have said 10 years ago. We have acceptable methods for control of tooth decay. The most reliable through the years has been surgery followed by restorations with metallic materials," he said. "Add to the old one of grinding and filling teeth a diet low in sugar content, drugs, (ammonia, urea, flourine, vitamin K, silver nitrate), and oral hygiene.

"Oral hygiene is the least satisfactory," Dr. Arnim said. "Getting people to brush their teeth regularly is no easy matter. But I don't give up hope. All of us take a bath daily, and maybe some day we will develop the habit of actually keeping our mouths clean."

TWO SUN DEVILS

I like limeade made with plain, and not carbonated water. Orangeade is made with plain water. Lemonade is made with plain water. So what is there so peculiar about wanting limeade made with plain water? But most people prefer it with carbonated and, regardless of my request, that's the way it's always served to me. If and when I ever get limeade with plain water, I'll know that the good old days when the customer was always right have returned.

In a Houston show window, "Shirts made to order, only $17.50." The material was not beaten gold or woven radium; it was cloth from Czechoslovakia.

Most of us blame nature because we do not become famous. We don't have the choice or the presence or something else. There are many singers with far richer voices than Cantor or Jolson or Durante—but these three have personality. As Durante says, "It's gotta come from the heart."

Opportunity is lacking, did someone say? Irving Berlin began as a singing waiter. He can scarcely pick out a tune with one finger on the piano but he has composed 800 songs, many of which have gladdened millions of hearts, and will live as long as the human race.

Edison was deaf. Milton was blind.

Byron had a club foot. Napoleon was five feet "tall." Demosthenes had a weak voice but developed it by declaiming against the roar of the ocean.

Paul Revere and Jesse James didn't amount to much until each got a horse.

Say, this pep talk of mine is getting me all fired with ambition!

This cockeyed world: In Houston, on Sunday you can buy a sack of peanuts at the zoo if you feed 'em to the monkeys. If you take the peanuts home and eat 'em yourself, you have broken the law.

MAKE THE NOTES FLY
Dimitri Mitropoulos was rehearsing his symphony. He came to a rather quiet place. The oboe player came out with a very loud, discordant note. Mitropoulos stopped the rehearsal and went over it again. When they came to that point, the oboe player did the same thing.

Mitropoulos threw up his hands and started over again. The third time it happened, Mitropoulos threw up his hands again and said to the oboe player, "What in the world is the matter with you?"

The oboe player looked at his music over his glasses and said, "Ach! I've been playing a fly!"

MUST'VE BEEN KANSAS
A farmer's wife had become mentally deranged. As they carried her out of the house in a straight jacket he said: "I shure don't know what got into her—she ain't been out of the kitchen in twenty-five years."

Buffaloes-Tempe To Play Here

When the Sun Devils from Arizona State of Tempe invade the campus of West Texas this week a battle will be looming that will decide a lot as to how the Buffaloes will stand in the Border Conference when the season ends.

West Texas will be primed to give the Devils a fight since it is the last home game of the current season. However the Tempe men will also be ready to fight since West Texas them 7-0 in Arizona last year.

So far this season the Sun Devils have come out on the long end of the game four times, but have fallen before their opponents five times. In the conference they are tied for third place with the Buffs and Arizona University with three wins and two losses.

Tempe's line is one of the toughest in the conference and will give the Buffs a lot of trouble if they try the line often. Passing is another field in which the Sun Devils shine.

But the Buffs will again be at top strength to oppose these iron men from Arizona. After the smashing 40-6 victory over Colorado College in Colorado Springs last Saturday, the Buffs should be able to give the Devils a hard time. The Tempe team had hard luck last week end as they fell before Arizona 26-13, however, that will not slow them down much, unless some injuries were sustained in that game.

CAUSE FOR WORRY

The teacher was talking of Niagara Falls. "The falls are slowly wearing back toward Buffalo and in the course of 200,000 years they will wash away Erie."

One of the girls in the class began to cry and the teacher asked what the trouble was.

"Oh," wailed the girl, "my sister lives in Erie."

Seniors Portray Dogpatchers Homecoming Is Chasing Affair

Homecoming at Phogbound University, (P. U.) was the theme of the senior's Sadie Hawkins Day assembly Monday morning which started a week of "girls pay" at Canyon High School.

Joan Morton, master of ceremonies, read the sketch and the cast acted in pantomime. Jack S. Phogbound (Max Bellah) started things off as he moved himself from the tickets office to the bleachers of the football field. Next to arrive at the game was Big Barnsmell, alias Hubert Drake, who created a commotion with his familiar odor. Then came the awful Scraggs. The two boys (Austell Burrus and Paige Carruth), the girl Belle, Valeta Haines, and their Pappy, Meade Michael.

Silent Yokum Slips In

Rusty Davis and Dick Barrett brought cheers from the crowd with imitations of "Hairless Joe and Lonesome Polecat." Next came those nasty McSwine girls (Martha Wilson and Jean Hill), and their Pa, (Clifford Burtz).

Silent Yokum, Marvin Fite, slipped in without saying a word. Marryin' Sam drew much attention with Mr. Devin characterizing him. Close at his heels came Available Jones (Lee Bailey) and Mayor McGurgle (Guy Brant). The mayor brought along the Proclamation to read before the game. That lady with two children, one under each arm, was none other than Betty Jane Hales. Jones Stupifies

Ah! Weak Eyes Yokum (Jack Sparks) stumbled over everything in his path and some that were not. Rita Gunter prissed in as the high classed dame from the city, Aunt Bessie. Gat Garson and his Gum-mol (C. L. Hood and Geneva McDougal) were looking things over. Stupifying Jones (Joan Bullard) came as she promised Available she would.

Old Man Mose (Elmer Mickey) came to see that his prediction to Lil' Abner came true. Sadie Hawkins and her Pa (Freda Menke and Eugene Morris) came as usual. Ma and Pa Yokum (Ruth Lill and James Bible) came to see that Lil' Abner didn't get caught. And then came Lil' Abner (Tommy Hunter) and following him as usual was Daisy Mae (Martha Jean Avent), Tobacco Rhoda (Joyce Carter) was also on hand to be in the race. Last but not least were the Dogpatch bobby-soxers (Collene Prichard, Lorella Devin, Ela Mae McCarter).

Proclamation Read

Mayor McGurgle read the proclamation. Hairless Joe and Lonesome Polecat led the crowd in making the kick-a-poo joy juice. Then the race! Daisy Mae caught Lil' Abner but the joy juice made Marrying Sam too sick to perform the ceremony. In fact, everyone was sick! Oh, unhappy Sadie Hawkins' Day!

Grade Notes

A new student has come to Mrs. Black's first grade. She is Betty Leslie from Paducah, Texas. Jerry Pat Pond has withdrawn and is going to move to Arizona.

Another new student, Marla Leslie, who is Betty's sister, is in Mrs. Murrell's second grade.

In Mrs. Goodman's room, there is a new electric clock. The clock was paid for by a 100% P. T. A. attendance check. Mrs. Goodman has just finished checking her children's eyesight and nearly all have perfect vision. Judy Cleavinger had a birthday recently.

Mickey Jo Hyde has moved from McMurtry and will be enrolled in Sanborn School in Amarillo. She was in Mrs. Brasher's fourth grade room.

C. G. Pond has withdrawn from Mrs. Walsh's room and is going to move to Arizona.

Mrs. Jones' sixth grade Spanish Class is learning to dance the Palapala, an Argentine Gaucho Dance.

In the Grade School Library, the teachers and the children have been working together to make the room a more pleasant and useful place in which to study by arranging the books differently, renumbering the tables and putting a Book Week poster up. A new electric clock was donated by Miss Fronabarger.

Last Friday there was a display of all sizes of pictures by Britain's Studio in the Home Economics Dining Room of the high school. Students turned in proofs of their pictures that are to go in the annual to Mrs. Ethel Black. She also accepted orders for individual pictures.

Tommy Gooch is back in school after being out for ten weeks due to a broken leg suffered in a motorcycle accident.

LET'S ALL SIGN

One just can't help admiring a school where quiet conduct and hard work is the order of the day. Wouldn't it be fine if CHS boasted of having this good standard? Yes, and is it the teacher's place to stand as an overlord and quiet everyone when they let out a sound, or is it the place of the students to control themselves? Of course it is generally the instructors and administration's responsibility to keep order, and get the blame for bad conduct, but this isn't democracy, and student democracy is a principle of our school.

Will it be left up to the teachers and administration, to act as dictators, or will the students take advantage of their rights and sign the new code and really make democracy work.

School Observes Education Week

In observance of National Education Week, teachers held Open House for the parents and friends of the students last Tuesday, November 11, in the high school building with 225 attending. The period of visitation was from 8:00 to 9:30.

The guests met in the auditorium at 7:30 for a short program before dispersing to the separate rooms for visits with the teachers. Mrs. Cecil Simms welcomed the parents and Mr. E. A. Wooten introduced the high school principal, Mr. J. E. Miller, and members of the board of trustees, who expressed a desire for many such meetings. A recorded number by the high school A Cappella Choir was presented by Mr. M. D. Shepherd.

To conclude the program for the evening, a tea was given for the guests in the parlor of the home-making department by the executive group of the P. T. A. with Mrs. Worth Jennings and Mrs. Bill Crow serving.

For their first party of the season the Canyon High FHA girls were hostesses at a masquerade ball for the FFA boys Tuesday night in the high school gymnasium. Each person came as their secret desire or as some comic strip character. Since

The sophomore class wishes to offer tardy thanks to the following merchants whose generous contributions enabled the class to obtain a sizeable gate receipt on last Hallowe'en night. They are: Jack Neal Jennings, Bellah's, Cooper's, Canyon Drug, and Taylor and Sons.

Red Cross Makes Plans for Work

Organization of a Junior Red Cross chapter in Canyon Public Schools will get under way soon.

Mrs. J. H. Gill, representative, of the districts comprising Oklahoma, New Mexico, and the Panhandle was here last week to discuss the enrollment campaign.

The Junior Red Cross chairman and committee of the local Red Cross chapter are responsible for organizing and planning the program.

Each sponsor will get his class enrolled and he will be issued necessary supplies; such as, membership cards, posters, and stickers. The enrollment fee for each class is fifty cents.

Some of the activities of the Junior Red Cross members are to learn first aid, accident prevention, water safety, nutrition, and home nursing. They also assist in the effort to conserve our national resources, carry on gardening and help with different types of campaigns.

4 High School Students Are Delta Kappa Gamma Guests

Rita Gunter, Guy Brant, Ruth Lill, and Joan Bullard attended a Delta Kappa Gamma meeting last Saturday night in the municipal auditorium of Amarillo as student guests of Mrs. John Davis and Miss Elva Fronabarger, who are members. Superintendent Elmer Wooten was also a guest.

The main program centered around a discussion by a group from Amarillo Junior College. They brought out many of the characteristics which should prevail in teachers and the need for educators to encourage students to become teachers.

In a closing message Dr. A. M. Meyer, president of Amarillo Junior College, challenged a reader's digest article which stated that education had failed.

Dr. Meyer stated, "If it has failed it is because of insufficient funds and equipment."

He also made it clear that if the world is to have peace, it can only come through the installment of good moral principles in mankind by good educators.

During the social hour following, refreshments were served.

Cherrie pie a la mode is especially good when you eat it at the Aristocrat! Isn't it Guy Brant?

Looked as if Martha Avent really had Tommy Hunter—in the Sadie Hawkins play, that is.

Marian McReynolds seemed pretty downhearted Friday. It couldn't be because Frank Heare was gone? Or could it?

Gladys Thomas, you can chase Mickey King legally, now that it is Sadie Hawkins Week.

What's this I hear about Linda Dooley, sitting with Sunny Hamilton in the show the other night.

Billy Cleavinger seems to be a pretty good serenader. If you don't believe me, ask Mable Graham or any of the other kids in English III.

Janey Forester stood up Austell Burrus Saturday night to go with that tall, dark and handsome boy. Guess who? As if you didn't know.

The question is: "Betty Miller are you going to ask Bruce Winn for a Sadie Hawkins date?"

SFC Institutes Student Code In Assembly

Members of the Student Faculty Congress met last Tuesday morning to discuss and draw up the Canyon High School Students Code which reads as follows:

The SFC having taken an oath to defend and support the constitution of the United States, and the constitution of the State of Texas, and the constitution of the Student Faculty Congress of Canyon High School to the best of our abilities and believing that each member of our student body should feel a real responsibility in helping us achieve the goals set forth in our constitution, submit the following code for our student body.

In keeping with my determination to honorably discharge this obligation, as a member of the Canyon High School, I promise:

Code

1. That I will use the facilities offered by the classroom to enlarge and broaden my interests, to increase my knowledge, to bring me closer to Truth, and to cultivate habits of industry and sound thinking.
2. That I will broaden my sympathies and practice the arts of sociability, true friendliness, and helpfulness in my home, in the school, and in all my associations, avoiding snobbishness in my own conduct and condemning it in others.
3. That I will develop habits of reading and conversing which will broaden my culture and enable me better to understand the problems of community, state, and nation.
4. That I will carry on discussion in and out of the classroom, not to overlook opponents and gratify my pride, but that I may grow in knowledge and wisdom.
5. That I will obey every rule or

Gridsters Share District Title

Either Tulia or Canyon Will Represent District 2-A

Coach Wheelock's Eagles will share the district title with Tulia and Dimmitt despite their 12-0 loss last Friday to the Bobcats. The representation for the bi-district will be decided between Canyon and Tulia.

In a meeting held by the coaches of the three teams, Dimmitt drew an "out" while Canyon and Tulia drew "ins." Canyon and Tulia will either play for the representation or will decide by the flip of a coin.

Dimmitt's fighting Bobcats threw the Eagles for their first loss of the season in district play at Buffalo Stadium last Friday night. The Bobcats' first touchdown came late in the first quarter when the Eagles fumbled on their own twenty-three yard line. Dimmitt made successive gains on off tackle smashes to fight their way to Canyon's two yard stripe. Lonnie Rice plunged the remaining yardage for Dimmitt's first tally. The attempt for extra point failed when the Bobcats tried an end-sweep.

Hunter Returns Kick

Opening the second quarter, Tommy Hunter returned the Cats' kick from the fifteen to his own thirty-two. Canyon failed to get started and was thrown for a three-yard loss. The Eagles fumbled on their own twenty-nine yard line with Dimmitt covering. The Bobcats scored their second touchdown on an off-tackle run. The try for extra point failed.

Canyon tried desperately to get back into the game with aials. Hunter completed a pass to Carter for a gain of nine yards. Meade Michael picked up four yards through Dimmitt's line. James Inman passed to Austell Burrus, but Dimmitt took over on their own twenty-one to march to their thirty-five. The Bobcats received a penalty of fifteen yards for holding, and kicked to their own thirty where Inman returned to the fifteen. Hunter fought his way to the two yard line as the half ended.

Teams Fail to Score

The last half was a battle with both teams failing to make long gains. Canyon tried unsuccessfully to score through aerial attempts, but Dimmitt's pass defense proved to be too much.

The game ended with the Eagles in possession of the ball on their own forty-seven. The final score was 12-0 in the Bobcats' favor.

Purple and White Decorates Gym For Drum Corps Frolic

Purple and white were the pre-dominating colors in the decorations at the Drum Corps party Wednesday night, November 12. White balloons with purple tassels were hung from the ceiling and purple and white crepe paper was looped on the walls and stairs.

The guests danced and played old-fashioned games after which Mrs. Jim Carter, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Ruthart, Mrs. John Jennings, and Mrs. W. M. Dickerson served refreshments of purple and white cakes and cocoa to the members of the Drum Corps, their partners, and sponsors, Mr. M. D. Shepherd and Mrs. Beatrice Haggard.

The FHA sold white pennants with the purple lettering "Beat Dimmitt and Win District" on Friday, November 14 in accordance with the game that night.

NORAANN McREYNOLDS

Gymnastics No Problem For Twirler McReynolds

"Life is exciting and wonderful," says the eighteen-year-old tumbling acrobat Noraann McReynolds from Phillips. Tumbling is not new to Noraann, the freshman lass whose nimble-limbed antics spark the twirling ensemble of the WT Buffalo Band. She had her first lessons at the age of four and has been performing with bands since she was eleven.

Noraann made her debut as mascot for Capitol Senior High of Oklahoma City, her native home, when she accompanied them on a Good will trip to Mexico City. Also in Oklahoma City she was featured as a child star in USO shows during the war.

Acting as majorette, head twirler, drum major, and acrobat with Phillips High School band, Noraann became noted for her twirling and acrobatic ability throughout the entire Panhandle. She also was a member of the school choir, the Semper-Fides sub-deb club, and the G. S. O. organization while in Phillips.

Charming, cheerful, vivacious, and always smiling are the words best suited to describe Noraann's personality.

She is 5 feet 1½ inches tall, has brown hair, and sparkling blue eyes. Eating broiled steak is her favorite pastime and chewing gum and collecting pennies are her hobbies.

Noraann likes to dance and enjoys good music. "Peg of My Heart" and "Tell Me Why" being her favorite songs. As for her choice in men she prefers the tall, dark type with black hair and grey eyes.

In West Texas State Noraann is a business major, acrobatic twirler in the Buffalo Band and also does tumbling and acrobatics at pep rallies. Noraann likes West Texas but her plans concerning her future education are uncertain.

Family Background Is Aid to Doctor Called on Case

According to Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, there are too many persons who approach the choice of a family physician casually. Viewing the doctor much as a fireman, whose services are required only in an emergency, such families wait until an illness strikes, and then get hold of the first doctor who can respond to the call. While such an attitude still reasonably assures one of satisfactory medical services, it can handicap the physician somewhat, and in the long run does not permit the supervision and close personal contact which can exist only by having a regular family doctor.

"Knowing his patients enables a physician to give advice on maintaining health and preventing disease, based on his intimate knowledge of the physical and mental make-up of the members of the family," Dr. Cox stated. "The casually summoned physician plainly cannot have this background or opportunity. It is well known to students of medical science that no one procedure or drug can be applied to the cure of every disease. It would indeed be fine if we could have some panacea for all diseases, but unfortunately the healing art is not as simple as that."

"People are far from being alike," he continued. "Bodily and mental characteristics markedly differ in members of the same family. Reactions to medicines of various types, the habits of the individual, environmental influences, and personal factors vary widely. Armed with an intelligent appreciation of these facts, as applied to the members of the family, a physician possesses the maximum opportunity to render his best advice, not only in curing disease, but as medical counselor to the family as a whole."

I forecast a new era when women will become so enamored of their skirt-swishing femininity that they will retire to the home and fireside. —Peggy Preston, The Washington Post.

Tigers Trampled 40-6 Under Herd

Nearly everyone concerned was thoroughly surprised when the Buffs gave Colorado College the beating of the year by smacking them completely 40-6 in Colorado Springs Saturday.

The first West Texas score came midway in the initial period after a series of punts and fumbles gave the Buffs the ball on the Tiger 36, but a penalty put the ball nearly on the midfield stripe. Two plays later Cloyce Box got loose and trampled 40 yards for the score. The placement try for extra point failed.

In the same period after the Tigers were unable to score or gain consistently after the kickoff, the Buffs got the ball on the 33 after a punt. Lloyd Johnson set up the score by running the ball in four plays to the Tiger seven from where Freeman Melton ran over for the score. Melton's try for extra point was good and the score at the end of the first period was 13-0 with WT in the lead.

Colorado College almost got a good scoring opportunity in the second quarter, but it was thwarted by the stout defense offered by WT and also by a fumble. Eddie Conner, a short time later, went 58 yards for a touchdown, but it was called back because of a clipping penalty. However, only about five plays later Cloyce Box again took the ball and raced 37 yards for a score, behind good blocking of some linemen who picked off Tigers by the dozen. The try for extra point was no good and the half ended as Melton intercepted a pass on Colorado's 30. The half-time score was 19-0.

Shortly after the second half opened Homer Garrett intercepted a Tiger pass on their end of the field. Three plays later Johnson took the ball and ran for 41 yards and another WT score. The point after touchdown was good and the score stood 26-0.

Only three plays after the ensuing kickoff a Tiger fumble was recovered by the Buffs on the 25. Box gained 16 yards to put it on the 9 and Cross then went over for the score. The extra point was again good and the score was 33-0.

Colorado again made a valiant effort to score, only to have their pass disrupted as they plunged into Buff territory. But the Buffs were not to be held during the third period. They pushed the ball to the Tiger 48, then Omer Jordan went all the way for another score, but again it was called back and a penalty assessed against the Buffs. On the next play Jordan passed to Cross who went to the 13. Cross then lost about 13 yards on a reverse. Melton then passed to Marvin Bowman for the score. The extra point was good and the score at the third period ended was 40-0.

The Tigers finally succeeded in scoring in the final period as they pushed all the way from the 50 yard line. A pass from French to Walters gave the Tigers a first down on the WT four, then Walters pushed over from the one. The try for extra point was blocked.
